

RENATO HENRIQUE DE GASPI

de-gaspi_renato@phd.ceu.edu

Education:

- 2019-present. PhD Candidate in Political Science (Political Economy track) at Central European University.
- 2018-2019. MA (with distinction) in Political Science with certification in Political Economy at Central European University. Thesis: Drifting Apart: crises, social bloc realignment, and industrial relations in Brazil and Mexico (1994-2012).
- 2015-2017. MPhil (with distinction) in International Relations at Zhejiang University. Thesis: Contested Neoliberalism: an analysis through the International Financial Institutions.
- 2011-2014. BA in International Relations at FACAMP – Faculdades de Campinas (Campinas' College).

Publications and Conference Papers:

- 2020. Book Review: Diversity of Capitalisms in Latin America. Review of Radical Political Economics.
- 2019. Conference Paper. “Drifting Apart: Perceptions of Crisis, Social Bloc Realignment, and Industrial Relations in Brazil and Mexico”. 30th Annual Meeting of the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics.
- 2018. Op-ed. “The 2018 elections, echoes from 1989 and the demise of the ‘Real Republic’” (in Portuguese). Congresso em Foco. Available at: <https://congressoemfoco.uol.com.br/opiniaoforum/as-eleicoes-de-2018-os-ecos-de-1989-e-o-fim-da-republica-do-real/>
- 2017. Conference Paper: “Contested Neoliberalism for better or worse: perspectives for an ambiguous order”. Presented at the 8th Annual IIPPE (International Initiative for the Promotion of Political Economy) Conference.
- 2016. Newspaper opinion piece. “Brazil: the results of the 2016 elections and some scenarios for 2018” (in Portuguese). People’s Daily Online – Portuguese Edition. Available at: <http://portuguese.people.com.cn/n3/2016/1008/c309814-9123884.html> (Co-authored with Professor José Medeiros, PhD).
- 2016. Conference Paper: “The TTIP: Advanced neoliberalism and China as a Rule-taker”. Presented at the Post-G20 International Forum in Hangzhou.

- 2016. Conference Paper: “Post-neoliberal? Analysing the PT’s insistence with Neoliberalism”. Presented at the 7th Annual IIPPE (International Initiative for the Promotion of Political Economy) Conference.

Internships and Relevant Experiences:

- 2019-2020. Country Expert for Varieties of Democracy (V-Dem). Country: Brazil.
- 06/2018. Participant at the Post-Keynesian Summer School at Kingston University, London.
- 2017-present. Associate Researcher and translator at the International Forum of Ideas’ Journal of the Federal University of Ouro Preto (Brazil).
- 06-07/2017. Volunteer Teacher of Economics of Globalization at China University Summer School Association.
- 2013-2014. Professor's assistant and Researcher at the Centre of Research and Studies on International Relations (CERI-FACAMP) at Campinas' College (Awarded with Scholarship).
- 05/2013. Short Duration Internship at various governmental institutions: Ministry of Defence, Brazilian Intelligence Agency, Brazilian Congress, National Confederation of Industry.
- 2012-2015. Participation in various Model United Nations conferences in Brazil with the FACAMP delegation.

Awards and Recognition

- 2019. Awarded with the CEU Doctoral Scholarship.
- 2019. Outstanding Academic Achievement award of Central European University.
- 2018. Awarded with the CEU Master’s Scholarship.
- 2017. Outstanding International Graduate Student of Zhejiang University.
- 2015. Awarded with the bilateral Brazil-China Scholarship of the Chinese Scholarship Council (CSC).
- 2013. Best Debater Award at the HarvardNMUN-LA.

Language Skills:

- Native language: Portuguese
- Fluent English (Certification: IELTS Academic 8.5 Band) – CEFR Framework: C2
- Fluent Spanish – CEFR Framework C2
- Basic German – CEFR Framework A2